Introduction

Since ancient times, various dance forms of Andhra Pradesh and telangana have enriched the cultural heritage of the state. In addition to Kuchipudi which is the classical dance of Andhra Pradesh and telangana, the state is rich in other dance forms like the semi-classical dances, folk dances and tribal dances. But unfortunately, due to various reasons some of these dance forms are fading away. Siddhendra Yogi, a doyen of Kuchipudi, lauded as Adi Guru by Kuchipudi dancers, gave life and blood to this dance form in its budding stages. He is the author of 'Bhama Kalapam', the jewel of Kuchipudi and he is the one who brought a distinctive style to Kuchipudi. Life of Siddhendra Yogi and his origins has never been clearly established. But there is an agreed consensus that he lived in the 13th and 14th centuries. There are many stories about the life of Siddhendra Yogi, but the popular version is that of Kuchipudi Bhagavatula

Leadership by examples

Gandhi's greatest ability was to walk his talk at every level and in every way. India continues to be a nation of many diverse nationalities but never did they so unanimously identify with another leader as they identified with Gandhi and the one nation dream and commitment which were even more deeply shared than they are these days. He practiced what he preached at every possible level. Didn't how he dressed like the poorest Indian with a hand-woven cotton cloth that loosely draped his body and had the simplest of watches and glasses. When it came to personal possessions, unlike today's leaders he had the barest of the minimum.

Heartfelt Poem for our beloved Bapu

अग्निजों का कर बहिष्कार, स्वतंत्रता का दिया हमें उपहार।
जो थे सत्य के पजुरी, थे वह बापू हमारे श्वेत पट धारी।।

खादी का धारण किया वस्त्र, अहिंसा था जिसका अस्त।
जो थे सत्य के पजुरी, थे वह बापू हमारे श्वेत पट धारी।।

देश के खातिर हर पीड़ा भोगी, स्वाभिमान के थे जो परम-जोगी।
जो थे सत्य के पजुरी, थे वह बापू हमारे श्वेत पट धारी।।

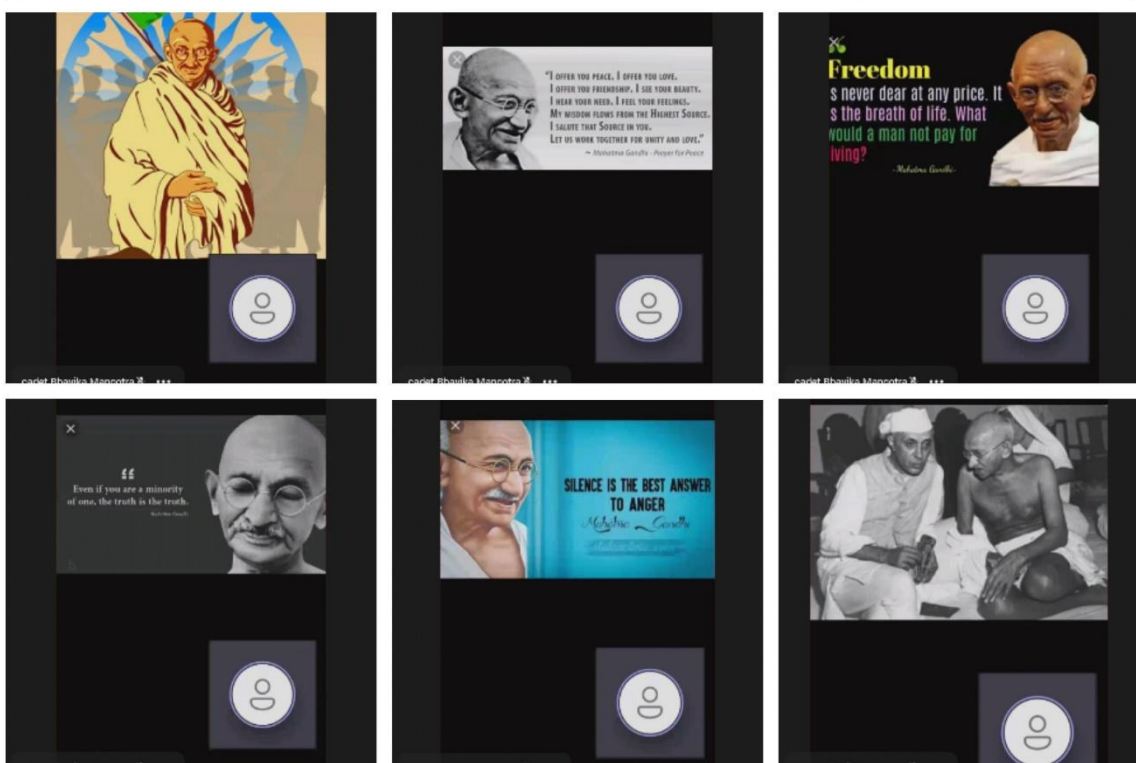

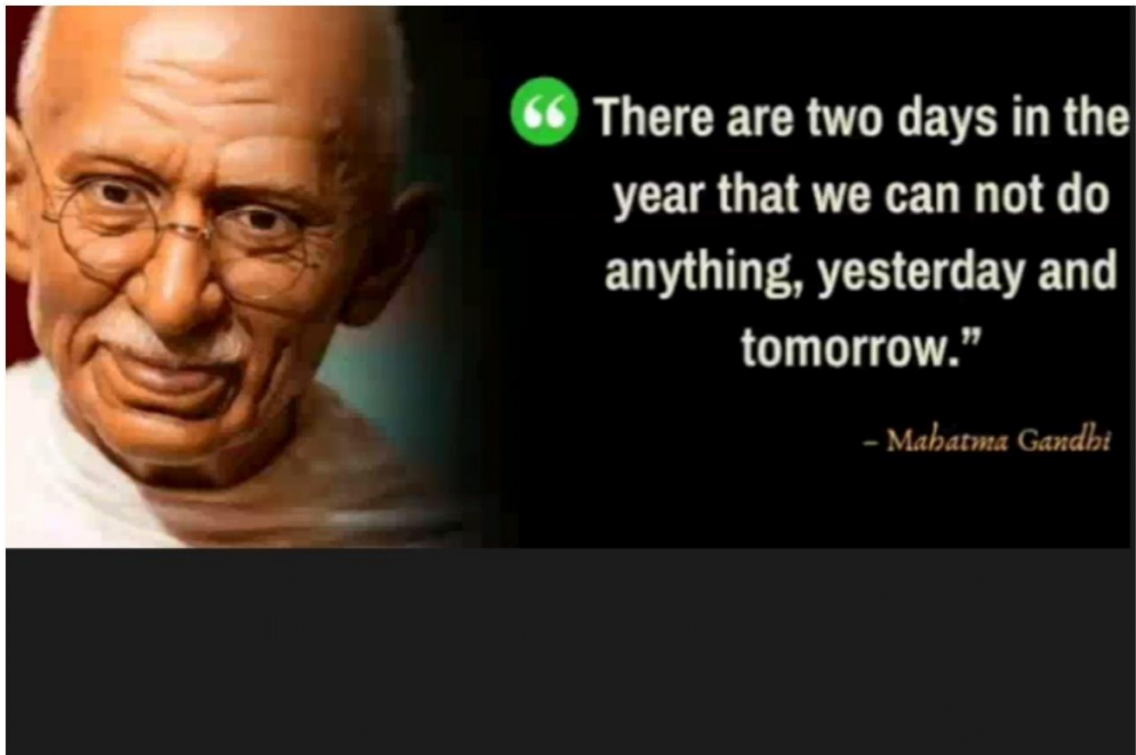

कहते हम जिसको चरखा वाला, आजादी में जिसने देश रंग डाला।
जो थे सत्य के पजुरी, थे वह बापू हमारे श्वेत पट धारी।।
